D. B. Overbolt, formerly of the White Cloud Leader was in town this week. He was on his way to Hiawatha, to look after his interests in the Leader printing material which he owns, but which is in litigation. He thinks they have a queer way of doing, out here. There is printing rial, of which he claims to be the owner, but mu await a decision of the Court; yet the material so in dis ute is being used, and has been used for many weeks past by persons who have no shadow of title to it, in printing the Brown County Advocate. It is being used and worn every week, and if the decision of the Court should render a sale necessary, the value by that time will probably be deteriorated one-half by hard and unauthorized usage. It does seem tough.
